SEC. 216. RESTRICTIONS ON INTELLIGENCE SHARING WITH THE UNITED NATIONS.

The United Nations Participation Act of 1945 (22 U.S.C. 287 et seq.) is amended by adding at the end the following new section:

“SEC. 12. RESTRICTIONS ON INTELLIGENCE SHARING WITH THE UNITED NATIONS.

“(a) PROVISION OF INTELLIGENCE INFORMATION TO THE UNITED NATIONS.—(1) No United States intelligence information may be provided to the United Nations or any organization affiliated with the United Nations, or to any officials or employees thereof, unless the President certifies to the appropriate committees of Congress that the Director of Central Intelligence (in this section referred to as the ‘DCI’), in consultation with the Secretary of State and the Secretary of Defense, has established and implemented procedures, and has worked with the United Nations to ensure implementation of procedures, for protecting from unauthorized disclosure

United States intelligence sources and methods connected to such information.

“(2) Paragraph (1) may be waived upon written certification by the President to the appropriate committees of Congress that providing such information to the United Nations or an organization affiliated with the United Nations, or to any officials or employees thereof, is in the national security interests of the United States.

“(b) PERIODIC AND SPECIAL REPORTS.—(1) The President shall report semiannually to the Select Committee on Intelligence and the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate and the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence and the Committee on International Relations of the House of Representatives on the types and volume of intelligence provided to the United Nations and the purposes for which it was provided during the period covered by the report. The President shall also report to the Select Committee on Intelligence and the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate and the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence and the Committee on International Relations of the House of Representatives within 15 days after it has become known to the United States Government that there has been an unauthorized disclosure of intelligence provided by the United States to the United Nations.

“(2) The requirement for periodic reports under the first sentence of paragraph (1) shall not apply to the provision of intelligence that is provided only to, and for the use of, appropriately cleared United States Government personnel serving with the United Nations.

“(c) DELEGATION OF DUTIES.—The President may not delegate or assign the duties of the President under this section.

“(d) RELATIONSHIP TO EXISTING LAW.—Nothing in this section shall be construed to—

“(1) impair or otherwise affect the authority of the Director of Central Intelligence to protect intelligence sources and methods from unauthorized disclosure pursuant to section 103(c)(5) of the National Security Act of 1947 (50 U.S.C. 403-3(c)(5)); or

“(2) supersede or otherwise affect the provisions of title V of the National Security Act of 1947 (50 U.S.C. 413 et seq.).

“(e) DEFINITION.—As used in this section, the term ‘appropriate committees of Congress’ means the Select Committee on Intelligence and the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate and the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence and the Committee on International Relations of the House of Representatives.”.

SEC. 604. AUTHORIZED PAYMENTS.

(a) PAYMENT OF LETTERS OF CREDIT.—(1) In addition to licenses required to be issued under section 575.510 of title 31, Code of Federal Regulations, the Secretary of the Treasury shall direct that licenses be issued to permit payments, as certified under subsection (b), from blocked Iraqi accounts involving an irrevocable letter of credit issued or confirmed by a foreign bank for the benefit of a United States person of amounts owed to such person with respect to goods or services lawfully exported to Iraq before August 2, 1990, whether or not such letter was confirmed by a United States bank.

(2) Licenses shall be issued under paragraph (1) not later than 120 days after the date on which the Foreign Claims Settlement Commission certifies an award pursuant to subsection (b).

(3) Payments made in compliance with this subsection or any regulation, order, instruction, or issued under this section, shall, to the extent of such payment, fully acquit and discharge for all purposes the obligation of the person making the payment. No person may be held liable for or with respect to anything done or omitted in good faith pursuant to and in reliance on this section or any such regulation, order, instruction, or direction.

(b) DETERMINATION OF CLAIMS.—(1) The Foreign Claims Settlement Commission of the United States is authorized to receive and determine the validity of any claims of United States persons against the Government of Iraq (including its agencies, instrumentalities, and controlled entities).

(2) The Foreign Claims Settlement Commission shall certify awards under this subsection to the Secretary of the Treasury not later than 270 days after the date of enactment of this Act.

(c) VESTING AUTHORITY.—The President is authorized to vest and liquidate as much of the assets of the Government of Iraq in the United States that have been blocked pursuant to the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1701 et. seq.) as may be necessary to satisfy claims under subsections (a) and (b).

(d) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this section:

(1) BLOCKED IRAQI ACCOUNTS.—The term "blocked Iraqi accounts" means funds on deposit in United States financial institutions in which the Government of Iraq has an interest and which were blocked under the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1701 et seq.) on or after August 2, 1990.

(2) UNITED STATES PERSON.—The term "United States person" means a person subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, including—

(A) any person, wherever located, who is a citizen or resident of the United States,

(B) any person actually within the United States,

(C) any corporation organized under the laws of the United States or of any State, territory, possession, or district of the United States, and

(D) any partnership, association, corporation, or other organization wherever organized or doing business which is owned or controlled by persons described in subparagraph (A), (B), or (C), and does not include the United States Government or any officer or employee thereof acting in an official capacity.

The purposes of this division are—

(1) to reorganize and reinvent the foreign affairs agencies of the United States in order to enhance the formulation, coordination, and implementation of United States foreign policy;

(2) to streamline and consolidate the functions and personnel of the Department of State, the Agency for International Development, the United States Information Agency, and the United States Arms Control and Disarmament Agency in order to eliminate redundancies in the functions and personnel of such agencies;

(3) to assist congressional efforts to balance the Federal budget and reduce the Federal debt;

(4) to ensure that the United States maintain adequate representation abroad within budgetary restraints;

(5) to ensure that programs critical to the promotion of United States national interests be maintained;

(6) to strengthen the authority of United States ambassadors over all United States Government personnel and resources located in United States diplomatic missions in order to enhance the ability of the ambassadors to deploy such personnel and resources to the best effect to attain the President's foreign policy objectives;

(7) to encourage United States foreign affairs agencies to maintain a high percentage of the best qualified, most competent United States citizens serving in the United States Government while downsizing significantly the total number of people employed by such agencies; and

(8) to ensure that all functions of United States diplomacy be subject to recruitment, training, assignment, promotion, and egress based on common standards and procedures while preserving maximum interchange among such functions.

TITLE XV—PLANS FOR CONSOLIDATION AND REINVENTION OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS AGENCIES

SEC. 1501. REORGANIZATION OF THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE AND THE INDEPENDENT FOREIGN AFFAIRS AGENCIES.

(a) SUBMISSION OF REORGANIZATION PLANS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The President is authorized to transmit to the appropriate congressional committees a reorganization plan or plans providing for the streamlining, consolidation, and merger of the functions of the foreign affairs agencies of the United States in order to carry out the purposes of section 1002.

(2) SPECIFIC OBJECTIVES.—Pursuant to paragraph (1), the President is authorized to transmit a reorganization plan meeting the following objectives:

(A) The elimination in the duplication of functions and personnel between the Department of State and the independent foreign affairs agencies, which may include the abolition of any such agency.

(B) The reduction in the aggregate number of positions in the Department of State and the independent foreign affairs agencies which are classified at each of levels II, III, and IV of the Executive Schedule.

(C) The reorganization and streamlining of the Department of State.

(D) The achievement of $1,700,000,000 in savings over 5 years through the streamlining, consolidation, and merger of the functions of the foreign affairs agencies.

(E) The enhancement of the formulation, coordination, and implementation of policy.

(F) The maintenance, to the maximum extent possible, of a United States diplomatic and consular presence abroad.

(G) The maintenance of programs vital to the national interests of the United States.

(b) PLAN ELEMENTS.—A reorganization plan transmitted under subsection (a)(2), consistent with the provisions of this Act, shall—

(1) identify the functions of the independent foreign affairs agency or agencies that will be transferred to the Department of State or any other agency under the plan, as well as those that may be abolished under the plan;

(2) identify the personnel and positions of the agency or agencies (including civil service personnel, Foreign Service personnel, and detailees) that will be transferred to the Department or any other agency, separated from service with the agency or agencies, or be terminated under the plan, and set forth a schedule for such transfers, separations, and terminations;

(3) identify the personnel and positions of the Department (including civil service personnel, Foreign Service personnel, and detailees) that will be transferred within the Department or any other agency, separated from service with the Department, or terminated under the plan and set forth a schedule for such transfers, separations, and terminations;

(4) specify the consolidations, mergers, and reorganization of functions of the Department that will be required under the plan in order to permit the Department to carry out the functions transferred to the Department under the plan;

(5) specify the funds available to the independent foreign affairs agency or agencies that will be transferred to the Department or any other agency under this Act as a result of the implementation of the plan;

(6) specify the proposed allocations within the Department of the funds specified for transfer under paragraph (5);

(7) specify the proposed disposition of the property, facilities, contracts, records, and other assets and liabilities of the independent foreign affairs agency or agencies resulting from the abolition of any such agency and the transfer of the functions of the independent foreign affairs agencies to the Department or to any other agency;

(8) specify a proposed consolidation of administrative functions to serve the Department of State and all independent foreign affairs agencies; and

(9) contain a certification by the Director of the Office of Management and Budget that the Director estimates that the plan will save $1,700,000,000 in budget authority during fiscal years 1996 through 2000 from the initial level appropriated for fiscal year 1995 for the following agencies (including appropriations made to accounts administered by such agencies): the Department of State, the United States Information Agency, the United States Agency for International Development, and the United States Arms Control and Disarmament Agency.

(c) LIMITATIONS.—

(1) LIMITATION ON REDUCTIONS IN PROGRAM LEVELS.—Not more than 30 percent of the savings required under subsection (b)(9) may be realized from reductions in program levels.

(2) LIMITATION ON SAVINGS FROM ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES OF THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.—Not more than 15 percent of the savings required under subsection (b)(9) may come from the administrative expenses of the Department of State.

(3) LIMITATIONS ON CONTENTS OF PLAN.—Sections 1606 and 1607 of this Act shall apply to a plan transmitted under subsection (a).

(d) EFFECTIVE DATE OF PLAN.—(1) A plan transmitted under subsection (a) shall become effective on a date which is 90 calendar days of continuous session of Congress after the date on which the plan is transmitted to Congress, unless the Congress enacts a joint resolution, in accordance with section 1608, disapproving the plan.

(2) Any provision of a plan submitted under subsection (a) may take effect later than the date on which the plan becomes effective.

(e) ABOLITION OF SPECIFIED INDEPENDENT FOREIGN AFFAIRS AGENCIES.—If the President does not transmit to Congress within six months after the date of enactment of this Act a reorganization plan meeting the objectives of subsection (a)(2), then the United States Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, the United States Information Agency, the Agency for International Development, and the International Development Cooperation Agency (exclusive of components expressly established by statute or reorganization plan) shall be abolished six months after the expiration of the period for submission of the plan, and the functions of such agencies shall be transferred in accordance with section 1601.

(f) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this section—

(1) the term “foreign affairs agencies” means the Department of State and the independent foreign affairs agencies; and

(2) the term “independent foreign affairs agencies” means such Federal agencies (other than the Department of State) that solely perform functions that are funded under major budget category 150 and includes the United States Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, the United States Information Agency, the Agency for International Development, and the International Development Cooperation Agency.

ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

SENATE QUARTERLY MAIL COSTS

• Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, in accordance with section 318 of Public Law 101-520 as amended by Public Law 103-283, I am submitting the frank mail allocations made to each Senator from the appropriation for official mail expenses and summary tabulations of Senate mass mail costs for the second and third quarters of fiscal year 1995 to be printed in the RECORD. These reports were not submitted for the RECORD at the appropriate time. The official mail allocations are available for frank mail costs, as stipulated in Public Law 103-283, the Legislative Branch Appropriations Act for fiscal year 1995. The second quarter of fiscal year 1995 covers the period of January 1, 1995, through March 31, 1995, and the third quarter covers the period of April 1, 1995, through June 30, 1995.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:
